Wow, that is a lot to offer for $20 a year. We can offer this because the SLUGS is a non-profit community of people like you, that want to share effort and resources to enjoy events and activities that an individual could not facilitate on their own. We are a collective of volunteers. The event ideas come from our members and we work together to foster these ideas until they become an activity to enjoy.

The SLUGS is truly a club owned by the members. The Board of Directors for the SLUGS are simply members helping to guide the club and manage the basic structural necessities of the organization. Because we are community that works towards a common goal, we want to provide a safe and comfortable space for our members to enjoy. To accomplish this, we do a background check on applicants to prevent dangerous offenders from joining the club. Besides safety, our commitment is that we are a welcoming community to the widest range of people of all backgrounds, and thus we do not discriminate on the basis of age, race, religion, sexual orientation, gender education, size, nor anything else. If you believe, as we do, that nude recreation in a social, family friendly environment is normal and healthy, and should be recognized as everybody's legal right, then we would love to have you to share in our community. Learn more about us on the next page. Please keep these pages for your reference when you submit the form.

Some basic tenets about the SLUGS.

A Non-Landed Naturist Activities Club

The SLUGS do not own physical or real property on which to participate in the practice of Naturism. We visit public or private lands or other nudist/naturist clubs which do own land for the enjoyment of naturism. Not every activity is nude. We enjoy nude recreation when the environment permits it.

You are expected to take personal responsibility for yourself

Many of our members like to participate in outdoor events/activities that have the potential of harm to the individual because of travel, physical exertion, or other causes. You are expected to take reasonable precautions to prevent any harm befalling you when participating in these activities. Also you are solely responsible for: your transportation to/from events, even when carpooling with other club members, any and all expenses you incur, such as fees; any entry level requirements from other clubs; any equipment needed by you to participate in the event/activity; any injuries or damages to your vehicle or your equipment incurred traveling to, during, or traveling from the event or activity.

Organization of activities and staying informed

Events & activities planned by the SLUGS will primarily be posted online. They are also reported in the SLUGS newsletter: The SlimeTrail. Members may attend any of the scheduled events that they wish, subject to R.S.V.P. and event size limitations. Every member is encouraged to volunteer to host or help coordinate an event or activity. Only in this way can we offer a wide range of activities and attend other organizations' events. Any member wishing to participate in an activity should contact the Host or Coordinator and they will provide instructions for participating in the activity. If you wish to host an activity, but are unsure of what is needed, please contact the Board of Directors, who will be pleased to assist you. It can be as easy as posting an idea for an activity (like a hike) in our online Yahoo group.

SLUGS Rules of Conduct

A community is most enjoyable when we interact as friends. As a Non-Landed Club, the actions shown by our members reflect upon our image as a club wherever we go. Our continued good relationship with other organizations, as well as how we function as a community, is totally dependent upon each of us to act respectfully towards others. Conduct is expected to be of the highest standards and must at all times be appropriate for a family setting. Therefore, respect the rules of any club or organization that you may be visiting. Know and obey the law. Behave responsibly. Treat the people you encounter with respect and friendliness. When in doubt, ask other members what the etiquette is for a situation or location.

Not acceptable at our events: use of drugs, narcotics, illegal substances, nor is excessive alcohol consumption and/or drunkenness. Abusive language, rude or crude behavior, overtly sexual behavior, legally criminal behavior or advances of an unwelcome or unwanted nature will not be tolerated. Firearms and other weapons are not allowed unless the activity is specifically geared towards them.

Conditional use: Photography or use of a video camera requires prior permission and may not be independently posted online without a signed model release. Understand that most landed clubs are adamant about no photography of any kind without their prior arrangement and approval. Violations can lead to a permanent ban for their premises and possible loss of equipment. (such as film & memory cards)

Note: SLUGS media including the newsletter and travelogue videos may include members' images from events. These are made available to our members and viewable from the members-only section of the website. The SLUGS do our best to protect our members from having their nude image exploited however we cannot guarantee anonymity. We do not post nude pictures in our online forums.
